Whenever the feeling of living was good
Wherever the statue of giving once stood
Whoever tried to carve it from wood
Was falling and calling your name

Your name never written by this faulty pen
Your fame not emblazoned in this where and when
Your shame unrevealed in this now and then
Falling and calling in vain
...Falling and calling in vain

Falling, calling, falling beyond all the love and the strife
Falling beyond the beginnings of life
Let us cry

And in which perfect personality's mind
Are heaven and heroes nowhere to find
Reason and ruthlessness somehow combined
Falling with no-one to call

Falling again into cavernous tombs
Castles, mansions, bedchamber rooms
Falling again into the wombs
That are calling and causing the fall
...calling and causing the fall

Falling, calling, falling beyond all the love and the strife
Falling beyond the beginnings of life
Let us cry... let us die
